beaches, and vast lemon gardens. Due to its proximity to Italy, Menton is unique in the way that it can sometimes feel more Italian than French. Day 8: Thursday, March 13, 2025 St. Paul de Vence: An Artist's Haven This morning, venture to historic St. Paul de Vence, situated atop a hill overlooking the beautiful countryside of Provence. Day 9: Friday, March 14, 2025 Nice (French Riviera) - Paris Your time on tour comes to a close today, but there's more of the world to see. Now it's off to make new memories. Head to the airport for your flight to the French capital. In under two hours, you'll be in Paris, the "City of Light." Depending on your flight arrival time, you may get a chance to explore your hotel's neighborhood with your Tour Manager. Later, join your local expert to take Le Métro (the city's famed underground transport system) and explore the Notre Dame Cathedral neighborhood. Enjoy the rest of the evening at leisure. (B)

Day 10: Saturday, March 15, 2025 Paris This morning, join your local expert and head back to Le Métro to get to the hip neighborhood of Montmartre. Blending artistic roots and quirky modernity, the 18th arrondissement is home to classical painters and cultural provocateurs. After trying a local café, take advantage of free time this afternoon to explore on your own. Perhaps you'll browse the shops of the Opéra district, where you'll have time to peruse luxury Parisian retailers, or take a stroll down the Champs-Élysées. As your day comes to a close, make the most of an evening. Dare for a spectacular evening in one of Paris's most beloved institutions, the famous Paradis Latin. Situated in a building associated with Napoleon and rebuilt by Gustav Eiffel himself, the Paradis has been running here since 1889. Enjoy your dinner and then bring on the champagne and let the show commence! (B, D)

Day 11: Sunday, March 16, 2025 Paris It's your last day in Paris. Visit the Suresnes American Cemetery in Paris, a memorial and resting place of more than 1,500 American servicemen and women from both world wars. France and America have enjoyed diplomatic, economic, and cultural relations since 1776. France was the first ally of the new United States, and its support proved decisive in the American victory over Britain in its War of Independence (1775–1783). It's not difficult to find bits of American history in Paris; as you travel through the city on its famous Le Métro transit system, you'll find street names such as Rue Benjamin Franklin, Avenue Franklin, Avenue du Président Kennedy, and many more. But today you'll discover a World War I cemetery nearby – the Suresnes American Cemetery and Memorial, the resting place of U.S. soldiers from both world wars. Walk among the gravestones, pause for silent reflection in the chapel, and take in a panoramic view of the City of Light from the peaceful hillside. This evening, take in an exclusive view of Paris from the Montparnasse Tower before a dinner featuring French cuisine. (B, D)

Day 12: Monday, March 17, 2025 Paris - Tour Ends Wish Paris au revoir as your tour comes to an end. (B)

PLEASE NOTE:

Book Now rates valid until Sep 07, 2024, valid on air inclusive packages only. The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices. In particular, your visits of Monaco, the Gardens of Villa Rothschild and St. Paul de Vence village involve negotiating some steep inclines over cobblestones, gravel or multiple flights of steps. Some of the most unique sightseeing can mean accessing locations that restrict motor coaches, especially in historic areas such as the Old Town of Nice, Monaco, Saint-Honorat Island and St. Paul de Vence. For your comfort, we recommend bringing walking shoes. If you require a walker or wheelchair, or have difficulty walking, you may not be able to access some of these areas and may want to consider an alternate program with us. Our Client Care Agents can provide additional information or assistance to help you determine the perfect trip for you.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability.

To complete your tour, we include roundtrip airport-to-hotel transfers when purchasing our airfare with your tour. If you have arranged for your own air, we are pleased to provide you the option of purchasing these transfers. Please note that all transfers will leave at pre-scheduled times.

For air-inclusive reservations, the name provided at time of booking must match your government-issued ID that will be used during travel. Name changes are subject to penalties.

Please be advised many airlines do not provide advance seat assignments until check-in at the airport. Advance seating will be subject to the airline's terms and conditions.
